

Swarnali Pal
B.Sc, D.Optom, B.Optom
Optometrist & Corporate Trainer
Himalaya Optical

Swarnali Pal is a formidable force in optometry—a trailblazer who blends clinical expertise with a bold, future-focused vision. A distinguished optometrist, she embodies confidence, ambition, and an unyielding pursuit of excellence. Moving beyond clinical practice, she has redefined training and development in the field, equipping the next generation of optometrists with strategic insight and innovative approaches. Her contributions extend to authorship as well, having co-authored two books with me, further cementing her role as a thought leader and change-maker in the profession.

She co-authored two books with me:

1. Professional Optometry Practice Management
2. Basics of Visual Optics
